Education should be a continuous process from birth to death. It is essentially a process leading to reconciliation of the human and divine elements in the constitution of a human being. Right relationship between God and man, spirit and matter, the whole and the part, should be a prime objective of educational techniques.

 Two volumes contain the record of a series of personal and group instructions given to a small group of aspirants over a period of fifteen years by a Master of the Wisdom. They contain detailed teachings on Meditation, Initiation and the Six Stages of Discipleship. They emphasise the new age pioneering necessity for group work, the development of group consciousness, and the change in training for initiation from individuals to discipleship groups.

 "A must-read for any Bailey student, anyone interested in the New Age movement, and for those who wonder, amidst our confused and divided world, where will it all end?" - Steven Chernikeeff, author of Esoteric Apprentice From tragic beginnings as an aristocratic orphan to becoming the mother of the New Age spiritual movement, Alice A. Bailey is one of the modern era's most misunderstood occult figures. Bailey's journey is a story of faith, from orthodox Christian beginnings, through a protracted spiritual crisis, to a newfound belief in Theosophy. A mystic and a seeker, a founder of global spiritual organizations, and a surmounter of adversity, Bailey's past is rife with injustices, myths, and misconceptions - including that she was an anti-Semite and a racist with a dark agenda. With scandals and controversies laid bare, Bailey's extraordinary life is revealed as a powerful, remarkable legacy. THE WORK OF THE MASTER DJWHAL KHUL Lucis Publishing Companies This Overview was carefully distilled from the abridgments, and was created to be used as an overall textbook and lesson-plan by study groups. New students may find it useful as an introduction to the vast body of knowledge bequeathed to us by DK and AAB. Intermediate students may benefit from it as a reference, while advanced disciples may appreciate it as a trusted source of 'recommend reading' for their students. It is my sincere belief that the Ageless Wisdom, much of which is discussed in this book, can and will aid the world at this time of great change. With this overview, the New Age movement, presently lacking in concrete knowledge, will have a core textbook upon which to grow. I believe this is one of the Ashram's goals and is part of DK's larger plan to spread awareness of the Ageless Wisdom throughout the world, and I am honored to play a small part in these objectives. Continuation of the teachings of the Himalayan Adept, Djwhal Khul. A new look at questions of astronomy and cosmology. Review and explanation of the set of astronomical questions. Astronomy has its own canons, its methods and laws. And, of course, scientists do not want to abandon the established views and change their outlook. However, in astronomy there are many unresolved issues.

And here again come to the aid of the ideas offered by the Masters of the Trans Esoteric School. Their concept of Yin and Yang, the Laws of Attraction and Repulsion is able to solve the problems of astronomy. In addition, they believe that many well-known interpretation of a number of processes and phenomena should be explained quite differently.

The book "The main occult laws and concepts"

- is the first in the series. It constitutes a basis, and allows you to rethink many of the scientific concepts and philosophical categories - there are "Spirit", "Matter", "Soul", "mass", "energy", "space" and "time." Yin and Yang, and their true meaning. What is "elementary particle" from the position of esotericism. The basis of its internal structure. A comparison of the concepts of "particle" and "soul". The creation and destruction of Ether, its emission and absorption,

Fields of Attraction and Repulsion. Explanation of some occult symbols - Pentagram, Star of David, swastika and other. What is 666 - Number of the Beast? Involution and evolution, Heaven and Hell, Baptism by Water and by Fire. How to interpret the meaning of the Apocalypse? The memory of elementary particle - in other words, its Karma, the Akashic records. Chakras - open and closed. What is the Ascension, Salvation, Exodus, Easter? Law of Identification is as a root cause of our incarnation, and then the subsequent unwillingness to die. Sons of Earth and Fire, Shiva and Brahma, Cain and Abel, Castor and Pollux. Secrets of Eastern philosophy can lead to revolution in the scientific worldview. This work may be interesting to scientists who are looking for an alternative explanation of the various scientific issues and questions both finished and outstanding. In addition, we can expect that people who study religious scriptures and treatises on philosophy and theosophy will pay attention to this work.

Also, this may include people interested in literature New Age.

This book contains the Fifteen Rules for Magic (for soul control), the soul, the White Magician, becoming manifest through its own inherent magical powers. The human being is essentially and inherently divine. The soul is the means whereby humanity evolves a consciousness of divinity, redeems gross matter and liberates the pure flame of spirit from the limitation of form.

This volume deals with the underlying structure of occult teaching for the present era and with those vast cosmic processes reproduced through all areas of life from universe to atom. A large section of the book gives a detailed exposition of Solar Fire, the Fire of Mind, since this is the dominant energy to be understood and controlled during this second solar system. A Treatise on Cosmic Fire provides a compact outline of a scheme of cosmology, philosophy and psychology, and serves as a basic reference and text book.

Perhaps you are standing in a bookstore thumbing through the pages of this little book, wondering if it contains the insights you are looking for. Perhaps you are wondering who the Ascended Master Djwhal Khul is and whether he really exists or ever did exist. Ultimately, it does not matter who the source is, but whether the contents are enlightening and useful to you and whether, after reading this book, you can understand more metaphysical and significance of the present time in Earth history. My perspective is that of one who has been a Tibetan Buddhist monk who eventually presided over a monastery. In that life, I focused on meditation, contemplation, study and simple chores, as well as training and teaching younger monks. The life culminated many others spent in the monasteries of the Orient and in more mundane activities. The contemplative life makes it possible to raise consciousness to higher levels, and it is a testing ground to see how well one has learned the principles one has studied. The goals of my Tibetan incarnation were to attain my true Buddha nature, demonstrate my compassion for all sentient beings, break free of the bonds of reincarnation and join the noble ones. Thus I am giving you this book as one who has attained these goals and who now dwells in what might be considered a different dimension. Or I might be referred to as a mind without a body! At the time when I transcended to a higher level, I gained insights into a greater realm of knowledge and wisdom than had been available to me as a man incarnated on Earth. So I am not writing from the perspective of a Buddhist, but from that of one of the Spiritual Hierarchy, who guides the life on this planet. -- Djwhal Khul

 The development of the intellect, while necessary, is a means to an end. The intellect should become a means of penetrating into new dimensions of thought and consciousness, and of awakening the intuitive faculty of "pure reason". Through occult meditation the gap is bridged between the threefold mind and the intuition.

Telepathy & the Etheric Vehicle CreateSpace
 In this classic seventeenth-century presentation of the union of Mahamudra and Dzogchen, Karma Chagmé, one of the great teachers of both these lineages of Tibetan Buddhism, begins with an overview of the spirit of awakening and the nature of actions and their ethical consequences. Next, drawing from his enormous erudition and profound experience, Chagmé gives exceptionally lucid instructions on the two phases of Dzogchen practice—the "breakthrough" and the "leap-over"—followed by an accessible introduction to the practice of the transference of consciousness at the time of death. The concluding chapters of this treatise present a detailed analysis of Mahamudra meditation in relation to Dzogchen practice. This tour de force of scholarly erudition and contemplative insight is made all the more accessible by the lively commentary of the contemporary Nyingma Lama Gyatrul Rinpoche. Although this book stands alone, it is the concluding section of a single body of teachings by Karma Chagmé, the earlier section published under the title A Spacious Path to Freedom. Karma Chagmé was a major teacher of the Karma Kagyu tradition of Tibetan Buddhism, and his writings have also become central to the Payul Nyingma order, making him an ideal figure to integrate these two great meditation systems.

The teaching on the seven rays can enable all true servers to work with greater skill and effectiveness in their chosen field of activity. As Alice Bailey wrote, a study of the rays will mean that "...we shall have a practical method of analysis whereby we can arrive at a right understanding of ourselves as ensouling entities, and at a wiser comprehension of our fellow men We can then deal more intelligently with ourselves, with our children and with our friends and associates. We shall find ourselves able to co-operate more wisely with the Plan as it is seeking expression at any particular time".
