School is so different from what it used to be. Although I am excited to see my friends, I am still getting used to the new ways to interact with my friends and teachers, with the Covid-19 pandemic. There is a lot I must be reminded of so that we can all be safe in school. Note to self and mind-setting until I can fully adjust. Learning while keeping yourself safe can still be fun! Children experience so many feelings every day. They tend to be careless and prioritize playing and mingling around while giving less attention to protecting themselves and keeping safe. Back to School with Covid-19 cites actual scenarios in school and at home and includes helpful tips for children and parents to help their kids learn and practice awareness, self-discipline, and compassion. It contains simple but effective ways to address risks that are now part of any school that opens during this pandemic. Tara was encouraged by the overwhelmingly positive response she received from her first book, and she hopes that Billie Goes Back to School helps families and schools around the world.

First Day at Zoo School Lorenz Educational Press

You might be working in the public schools, but who are you really working for on your job? Are you allowing the Lord to use you in such a way that He is obviously at work with you in your public school? Yes, God is looking at our public schools and sees the righteous ones in whom He can work to bring about revival and spiritual healing. From bus drivers to teachers to administrators, there is no Christian public school employee who can't have an influence for our Lord Jesus Christ if we allow Him to fill us and lead us. As you read Dear God, Welcome Back to School, prepare to be encouraged, edified, and equipped. You will learn how God expects His people to join Him as He gives us this "land," and you will see how you can experience God more and more in your school.

This huge revelation will result in you being empowered to serve Him as a true soldier of Jesus Christ, going to battle to win the souls of students and staff. Let's hearken to the voice of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, as He says, "Come to Me, all who are weary and heavy-laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light" (Matt. 11:28-30 nasb).

All Are Welcome Running Press Adult

A dark relationship evolves between a high schooler and her English teacher in this breathtakingly powerful memoir about a young woman who must learn to rewrite her own story. "Have you ever read Lolita?" So begins seventeen-year-old Alisson's metamorphosis from student to lover and then victim. A lonely and vulnerable high school senior, Alisson finds solace only in her writing—and in a young, charismatic English teacher, Mr. North. Mr. North gives Alisson a copy of Lolita to read, telling her it is a beautiful story about love. The book soon becomes the backdrop to a connection that blooms from a simple crush into a forbidden romance. But as Mr. North's hold on her tightens, Alisson is forced to evaluate how much of their narrative is actually a disturbing fiction. In the wake of what becomes a deeply abusive relationship, Alisson is faced again and again with the story of her past, from rereading Lolita in college to working with teenage girls to becoming a professor of creative writing. It is only with that distance and perspective that she understands the ultimate power language has had on her—and how to harness that power to tell her own true story. Being Lolita is a stunning coming-of-age memoir that shines a bright light on our shifting perceptions of consent, vulnerability, and power. This is the story of what happens when a young woman realizes her entire narrative must be rewritten—and then takes back the pen to rewrite it.

School's First Day of School Good Apple

Janika is suppressing her pain but reluctantly shares it with a teacher. She shares her trials and thoughts that many young people may have a personal connection to. This story goes into her home and takes your heart to some very real lives of many children today. Janika is not aware of her situation of abuse and seems to have a very low self image of her gifts and abilities. Janika shares is a powerful tool for teachers to identify students with special needs. It's a welcome back to school story that would trigger a dissonant note in the hearts of all students but mainly initiate and empower one with silent pain to reach out for help. This story was inspired by the many at risk students in Hawaii and very likely after reading this, you the reader would feel the heart of someone right next to you who might be dealing with daily struggles similar to Janika.
