French Conversation-grammar Canadian Scholars' Press

This collection of themes and versions is intended for use by English-speaking students at universities in Canada, the United States and the United Kingdom. The 120 texts, which mark out four distinct levels, can be used in the second, third and fourth years of Canadian universities; the simpler ones are suitable for young adults who have completed four or five years of French in high school and one year at university, or the equivalent. All the texts date from the 20th century or the first years of the 21st. Most are excerpts from novels, stories and plays, but print media and literary theory are also represented in this collection; excerpts from great authors alongside excerpts from detective novels and spy novels; Canadian authors have their place alongside American,

British and Irish authors; the versions come not only from French texts but also from Quebec, French-Canadian or Haitian texts; many of the authors chosen are women. La Roussotte TheBookEdition Since it was first published, French in Action: A Beginning Course in Language and Culture—The Capretz Method has been widely recognized in the field as a model for video-based foreign-language instructional materials. The third edition, revised by Pierre Capretz and Barry Lydgate, includes new, contemporary illustrations throughout and, in the Documents section of each lesson, more-relevant information for today's students. A completely new feature is a journal by the popular character Marie-Laure, who observes and comments humorously on the political, cultural, and technological changes in the world between 1985 and today. The new edition also incorporates more content about the entire Francophone world. In use by hundreds of colleges, universities, and high schools, French in Action remains a powerful educational resource that this third edition updates for a new generation of learners. Part 2 gives students at the intermediate level the tools they need to communicate effectively in French and to understand and appreciate French and Francophone cultures.
