This Is My Tree Words & Pictures

The perfect introduction to the naughtiest words and phrases created by Roald Dahl with redunculous language notes. Find insulting similes and learn a load of poppyrot. Use words in a brilliantly disgusterous way.

Etienne Delessert Farrar, Straus and Giroux (BYR)

(Five Finger Piano Songbook). Eight easy, playable arrangements of recent Disney movie hit songs arranged in five finger piano notation. Includes: Do You Want to Build a Snowman? (from Frozen) * Evermore and How Does a Moment Last Forever (from Beauty and the Beast) * How Far I'll Go and You're Welcome (from Moana) * Remember Me (Ernesto de la Cruz); Un Poco Loco and The World Es Mi Familia (from Coco). Hal Leonard Five-Finger Piano songbooks are designed for students in their first year of study. They feature single-note melody lines that stay in one position, indicated by a small keyboard diagram at the beginning of each song. Each song also includes lyrics and beautifully written piano accompaniments that can be played by teachers, parents or more experienced students.

Since the 1970s researchers in the communicative development of infants and small children had rejected traditional models and began to explore the complex, dynamic properties of communicative exchanges. This title, originally published in 1993, proposed a new and advanced frame of reference to account for the growing body of empirical work on the emergence of communication processes at the time. Communication development in the early years of life undergoes universal processes of change and variations linked to the characteristics and qualities of different social contexts. The first section of the book presents key issues in communication research which were either revisited (intentional communication, imitation, symbolic play) or newly introduced (co-regulation, the role of emotions, shared meaning) in recent years. The second section provides an account of communication as a context-bound process partly inspired by theoretical accounts such as those of Vygotsky and Wallon. Included here are new studies showing differences in communication between infants compared with those between infants and adults, which also have important methodological implications. With perspectives from developmental psychology, psycholinguistics and educational psychology, the international contributors give a multi-disciplinary account of the expansion, variety and richness of current research on early communication. This title will be of particular interest to those involved in child development and communication research, as well as for social, educational and clinical psychologists.

Thank You, Miyuki Listen to the Follow Hermes on 100 unforgettable journeys across the fascinating, colourful world of Greek mythology. The young god is determined to have adventures from the very moment of his unusual birth, stealing sacred cows, discovering fire and inventing the lyre and flute. With his tumbling brown curls and cheerful fearlessness, he charms his fellow gods: mighty Apollo, mournful Artemis, beautiful Aphrodite, and even the king of the gods, his father, Zeus himself. He will drink the nectar of Olympus and discover the truth about the immortals, from their first moments and worst monsters to their greatest loves and most terrible battles-but Hermes won't let any of it distract him from that whole wide world of good fun...

Danger! Wizard at Work! #11 words & pictures

A series of sound-button board books which combines gorgeous illustrations with six high-quality sounds.

The Adventures of Hermes, God of Thieves Hal Leonard Corporation

Maisy's colourful lift-the-flap, pull-the-tab books encourage children to learn with the little mouse. In Maisy's Book of Colours children can see her with her red coat and her white bathrobe, driving her green train and sailing on the blue sea.

The pragmatic system consists of the rules for appropriate and communicatively-effective language use. This book provides an integrated view of the acquisition of the various pragmatic subsystems, including expression of communicative intents, participation in conversation, and production of extended discourse. The three components of the pragmatic system are presented in a way that makes clear how they relate to each other and why they all fall under the rubric of "pragmatics". The authors combine their own extensive work in these three domains with an overview of the field of pragmatic development, describing how linguistic pragmatics relates to other aspects of language development, to social development, and to becoming a member of one's culture.

My Journey from Paris to Java Franklin Watts

For over 30 years, self-taught artist Etienne Delessert has been translating ideas, passions, fantasies and nightmares into the visual language of illustration, posters, animated films and paintings. This volume contains a sampling from the many areas of his work.

Madlenka Gallimard-Jeunesse

Voici des amusettes que l'on se transmet depuis des générations pour le plus grand bonheur des petits et des grands. Les mains de maman s'envolent comme l'oiseau, les doigts piquent comme la fourmi, les genoux de papa se font cheval ou vagues... On a un peu peur, on rit beaucoup ! Et insensiblement, dans le pur plaisir, on s'éveille à la musique. A chaque amulette correspond sur ce livre-CD une belle image pour rêver, le descriptif des gestes pour s'amuser, les paroles et les musiques pour chanter. Les numéros des pages renvoient aux plages du CD. A la fin du CD, les versions instrumentales invitent les plus grands à chanter tout seuls et les plus petits à retrouver la chanson et son image.

Gus is a Tree Walker Books Limited

Amber Brown's going through a growth spurt . . . and her body's not the only thing that's changing. Her mom and Max are engaged. Her dad is moving back from Paris. And now her school's overrun by skunks, and she feels like she's being held captive in a hot, crowded school bus that's going nowhere. But growth spurts and skunks are not her only concerns. Why can't her parents agree on anything . . . and most important, what will happen when Dad moves back?

Maisy's Colours Chronicle Books

Melinda is struggling to find a birthday present for her Dad. What do you get a pirate who has everything?! Her brother Ricky soon starts to cause trouble and before you know it the two of them get themselves into terrible danger... Race Further with Reading is the perfect tool to build reading confidence with illustrated stories in manageable bite-size chapters, following on a level from the Race Ahead with Reading series with stories of 2,000 words.

Flying Tips for Flightless Birds Penguin Group USA

Jean Bottero, one of the world's leading figures in Ancient Near Eastern Studies, approaches the Bible as an astounding variety of documents that reveal much of their time of origin, historical events, and climates of thought.

2020 Alligators Allen & Unwin

In this charming follow-up to 2015's hit Who Done It?, each page asks the reader a question about the lineup of characters featured on the spread. Sharp eyes and keen observation are necessary. There's only one right answer, and it's not always easy! Kids will love learning early concepts like expressions and positions as a natural consequence of their hunt for clues in the details of the lineup. It's a book for all audiences: the seek-and-find call to action of every page makes Who What Where? a wonderful lap or parent read. Plus, this is the fixed format version, which looks almost identical to the print edition.

Spotty Powder and Other Splendiferous Secrets (Pocket Money Puffin) Random House

Gus dozes off on the playground and dreams that he is a tree in the forest.

Includes glossary of terms related to trees and forests.

How to Live Forever Editions Didier Millet

A treasure trove of Dahl! Amazing facts - some funny, some silly - and an original chapter from Charlie and the Chocolate Factory make this a splendiferous, surprising and delicious treat from the wonderful world of Roald Dahl!

Maisy's Snuggle Book Penguin UK

In this delightful little volume, Honoré de Balzac, the renowned 19th century French novelist and playwright, takes readers on a short fantasy journey to the mystical island of Java where he - or rather the narrateur - encounters a deadly poison-breathing tree, civilized monkeys, a love-sick sparrow, and the epitome of Oriental desirability of the day - the women of Java.

The Pirate's Daughter Penguin

Louis I, King of the Sheep is a funny philosophical fable about a sheep who finds a crown, and revels in dreams of power.

Mon imagier des amusettes National Geographic Books

Miyuki and her grandfather return in an enchanting intergenerational story enhanced by Seng Soun Ratanavanh's gorgeous Japanese-inspired illustrations. Miyuki's curiosity is piqued by her grandfather's morning meditation routine, and she is eager to learn this new skill. Her wise and patient grandfather first takes her on a walk in the garden. "When do we start to meditate?" she asks repeatedly.

Grandfather enjoys the warm sun and stops to smell a rose, inviting Miyuki to join him. Their walk in the garden, filled with many tender moments, heightens their gratitude for each other and for the world around them. Miyuki comes to understand that in the small acts of mindfulness throughout her day, she learned how to meditate.

Livres hebdo Routledge

A soft, snuggly book, with cushiony padded pages in bold, bright colours featuring Maisy and her favourite friends. Suitable for a parent and baby to share at bedtime - or any time - it offers a special introduction to a whole world of pleasure through reading.
